
Air Freight

Since

1977 APR is a member of IATA (International Air Transportation Association), which gives us enough experience to fulfill the needs of our customers.

Our

Airfreight Departments are perfectly coordinated to solve any kind of requests, saving time and money and giving an added value to your business.

Through

our Agent's net placed on the most important commercial areas of the world, APR is able to give a personalized service to the customers.

The APR's consolidated service allows to get important saves on the transportation of your goods.

- Airfreight Services

